The white paper I presented yesterday has been updated base on your feedback and the updated copy is attached for your further review and comments. Note that I am still working on the Attachment A which is noted therein. This attachment will consist of the list of proposed rules that Joe provided yesterday for Sargent & Lundy to include in its evaluation work. I have stipulated in the white paper that Sargent & Lundy is to validate this list and add any proposed rules that we did not mention and to also identify any we did mention that may not apply. Please forward to any of your personnel that you may want to review it.

I would appreciate any comments by noon tomorrow so that I can incorporate them prior to the meeting with Sargent & Lundy on Friday.

Thanks.
